SKETCH
OF THE
CONGREGATION
OF THE
XAVERIAN BROTHERS.

THE FOUNDATION AND PROGRESS.

As our purpose of presenting this circular to the Rev. Clergy is to solicit their aid in encouraging vocations to our Institute, we deem it proper to lay before them a brief synopsis of its history and object.

The Founder, Theodore James Ryken, was born August 30, 1797, at Elshout, in the Catholic province of North Brabant, Holland. His parents having died while he was still young, his moral and educational training was committed to his saintly uncle, and into no better hands could it have fallen. Piety seems to have been hereditary in his family, as is evidenced by the number of his relatives who were distinguished for their virtue, charity and zeal in the cause of religion. During the early part of his life he was associated with the celebrated convert and writer, Le Sage Ten Broeck, in conducting an asylum for orphans and destitute boys. The sight of these poor children, together with the knowledge of the evil effects produced by godless education, made such an impression on the mind of Mr. Ryken, that he determined to found a Congregation of men who would sacrifice their lives to the christian education of youth. Thinking that Europe had her just proportion of religious teaching orders, his eyes turned to the New World. Accordingly, in 1838, he visited St. Louis, and laid his plans before Bishop Rosati, then Bishop of that Diocese. The impression that Mr. Ryken made on that venerable prelate will be seen from the following letter which he gave to the founder.

JAMES ROSATI, Congregationes Missionis.

Dei et Apostolicæ Sedis gratia,

Episcopus S. Ludovici:

Since the instruction of boys in literature and religion is much wanted in our diocese, a Religious Society or Community of Brothers, who would undertake this work and apply themselves to it with all their strength, would be very useful among us both for the glory of God and the salvation of souls; and, therefore, most acceptable to us and all good souls. Mr. Ryken has made known to us as well by letters from Belgium, as also in conversation, when a few days ago he visited us for that purpose, that he has for some time been seriously thinking of engaging in so laudable an undertaking. We, therefore, think his intention of collecting some pious youths in Belgium under certain rules, of proving them well, and rightly instructing them in religious discipline, afterwards to bind them by vows to this good work, and to come into America with them, to apply themselves to the instruction of youth in religion and literature, as worthy not only of the praises of the faithful who are desirous of the propagation and increase of religion, but also of their favor and co-operation. This desirable end he will no doubt accomplish, if the most excellent and Reverend Bishop of Bruges will deign for the future to favor his design with that pastoral and fatherly care, with which he has already so affectionately cherished it. As to us, if Providence deign to send us any brothers, we will affectionately embrace them, and most willingly commit to their care and instruction the youth of our Asylum who at the present time number fifty boys. The brothers will also deserve much of religion, if some among them well instructed in the method of teaching the deaf and dumb should devote their time to their education.

Given at St. Louis, in the State of Missouri, in North America, this 17th day of February, 1838.

(SIGNED) † JOSEPH, Bishop of St. Louis.

On the 1st of February, 1839, Bishop Rosati again wrote to Mr. Ryken as follows:

DEAR MR. RYKEN:

I received both your letters and I learn with pleasure of the perseverance in your resolution of coming to America, and the choice you have made of establishing yourself in the diocese of St. Louis. Under the protection and guidance of your venerable prelate, the Rt. Rev. Bishop of Bruges, this good work cannot fail to be successful, and be the means of doing much good in this country. Our orphans increase day by day and they will pray for this beautiful work from which they will reap such great advantages. The establishment of the Sisters, for the instruction of deaf and dumb girls, is in a flourishing condition; they begin to be known and have received some more scholars. The Legislature has promised to assist us; all the members of the House of Representatives and the Senate of the State of Missouri were delighted with our small commencement and will do something to assist us.

They have asked Congress, in the name of the State, for land, and I have promised them that before the next General Assembly, which will take place after two years, that I would have commenced an establishment for boys, reckoning on you.

Thus you see that Providence prepares the way.

The following is an exact translation of the Letter of Approval from the Bishop of Bruges:

FRANCOIS RENE BOUSSEN,

By the mercy of God, and the favor of the Apostolic See, Bishop of Bruges, Belgium.

Mr. Theodore Ryken has laid before us a plan of an Institution, the object of which is the education of children. This plan has received our serious consideration for a long time, and we submitted the same for examination to a number of venerable ecclesiastics. The result of this examination, together with the written approbations of seven Right Rev. Bishops of the United States of America, and, above all, the warm interest expressed by one of those Right Rev. Prelates, who has personally conversed with us on the subject, have given us the entire conviction of this important work which will not only be of great benefit to the Mission of America, but also to our dear flock who have long since claimed the need of such institutions.

Therefore, having in view the spiritual progress of those entrusted to our care, and following the example of several Right Rev. members of the Episcopate, who are deeply interested in the foreign missions, we have approved of this institution and authorized Mr. Theodore Ryken to inaugurate, under our direction, in our episcopal city, a congregation of Brothers destined to co-operate, according to their means to the accomplishment of this project.

In order to favor, as much as is in our power, this pious institution, we recommend it for the above named motives to the charitable souls with a firm confidence that their gifts will not only bear the desired fruits, but also that thereby they will draw upon themselves the tender dew of heavenly blessings.

Given at Bruges, the 1st of October, 1840.

† FRANCOIS, Bishop of Bruges, Belgium.

Mr. Ryken visited America twice before he began the foundation of his Congregation; on each occasion laying his plans before a few bishops then in this country. They approved them and encouraged him to put them into effect. On his return to Europe he immediately set to work on the arduous work of maturing his plans, by preparing the constitution and rules for his intended Congregation, in which he was materially assisted by the venerable and learned Jesuit Father Van Kerhoven. The Rev. Jesuit Fathers were chosen the spiritual directors of the young Congregation, and always have manifested a deep interest in the advancement of the same.

His next move was to the seat of all spiritual power and authority—Rome. He was most graciously received by the Holy Father, Pope Gregory XVI., who gave him and his efforts his benediction, placing the young congregation under Mgr. Boussen, then Bishop of Bruges, as its protector. Under the paternal protection of this saintly bishop and his illustrious successors, the rising Congregation, after passing through various hard and bitter struggles, that emanated from sources whence they were least expected, has, at last, triumphed over the past difficulties and is now on the most firm footing with every fair prospect before it. He began the institution of the Congregation at Bruges, Belgium, June 5, 1839, after which several young men came to join the Congregation, and on the 22d of October, 1846, he, with twelve young brothers, made their profession, taking himself the name of Bro. Francis Xavier, after the great apostle of the Indies, who was chosen patron of the Congregation. After making his profession Bro. Francis immediately opened, in Bruges, St. Xavier's Institute, an Institution for day scholars and boarders, which, at the present time is the most flourishing school in the city. Since then several more schools were established by the Brothers in Bruges as well as in others cities of Belgium.

In 1848 Bro. Francis set out for England, where he planted the first branch of the Congregation. That branch has been steadily growing, and they now conduct several flourishing educational establishments, in London, Manchester, Mayfield, Preston, &c.

OF THE XAVERIAN BROTHERS.

In 1854, the late lamented Archbishop Spalding (then bishop of Louisville) visited Europe to assist at the definition of the dogma of the Immaculate Conception. He passed through Bruges, and being a warm personal friend of Mgr. Malou, then Bishop of Bruges, he became acquainted with Bro. Francis, the founder. The result was that Bishop Spalding made arrangements with Bro. Francis to take a colony of the Brothers to America. In accordance with the agreement, six brothers, accompanied by the founder, arrived in Louisville in the fall of the same year. Bishop Spalding procured for the Brothers a spacious and commodious dwelling in the centre of the city. In the same building, they now conduct St. Xavier's Institute, one of the most prosperous academies in the State of Kentucky.

After Bishop Spalding was appointed to the Archbishopric of Baltimore, he asked and obtained from the Superior-General, Bro. Vincent, successor to the Founder some Brothers to take charge of St. Mary's Industrial School, which grand charity he had at that time in view. The brothers took charge of it, and now with its Four Hundred inmates, the Institution stands as a shining monument to the large hearted and charitable prelate, who was its founder—Archbishop Martin John Spalding. After being in Baltimore a few years the Brothers accepted the invitation of the zealous pastor of St. Patrick's Church, Rev. J. T. Gaitley, to take charge of his school.

On November 26, 1871, the saintly founder died, deeply regretted by the Congregation. After twenty-seven years of unceasing labor for the establishment of his Congregation, he, at a ripe old age, went to his God to receive the reward he so justly merited.

At a general chapter of the Congregation, held at Bruges, Belgium, in August, 1875, it was decided to erect the brotherhood in this country into a province, having its seat of government in Maryland. During the same council Bro. Alexius, then Director of St. Mary's Industrial School, was chosen to be Provincial.

The long cherished wish of having a Novitiate in the country wherein they could train young men as teachers, was at last brought to a happy realization in the purchase of ten-and-a-half acres of land with various buildings, about two miles from the City of Baltimore, and on the 30th of November, 1876, the Novitiate was opened with great ceremony—the Catholic Knights, beneficial and temperance societies, of Baltimore attending in a body. The Novitiate is located in the Archdiocese of Baltimore, with the most cordial approval of the late lamented Archbishop J. R. Bayley.

The Brothers now conduct Mt. St. Joseph's College, at Mt. St. Joseph, Carrollton, near Baltimore, Md., St. Mary's Industrial School, situated about $1\frac{1}{2}$ miles from the College, St. James' Home for Boys, St.

Patrick's and St. Joseph's parochial schools in Baltimore city, St. Xavier's Institute, and the majority of the parochial schools of Louisville, Ky., the Cathedral Parochial Schools, Richmond, Va., St. Patrick's School, Lowell, Mass. They have applications from nearly every State in the Union, which for the present cannot be filled for want of members.

CIRCULAR
XAVERIAN BROTHERS' NOVITIATE,
CARROLLTON,
CARROLL P. O., NEAR BALTIMORE, MD.

The Xaverian Brothers very respectfully inform the Rev. Clergy that they have established a Novitiate at Mount St. Joseph, Carrollton, near Baltimore, Md., and solicit their kind assistance, it being often in their power, by good advice, to encourage young men who may be anxious to lead a Religious life.

The end of the Congregation is the perfection of its own members, and the Christian education of youth.

The age for admitting members is from fifteen to thirty years.

The necessary qualifications are good health, sound constitution, piety, without singularity, and a willingness to be instructed so as to become useful members.

The time of Probation is Two Years; the whole or part whereof, is to be spent in the Novitiate.

After the expiration of the term of Noviceship they are allowed to take the vows of Poverty, Chastity and Obedience, provided their behavior has given entire satisfaction.

During the time of Probation the Novices are obliged to observe all the rules and regulations of the Congregation, and to obey the orders of the Superior.

Applicants for admission into the Congregation would do well to send certificates of their baptism and health, and a letter of recommendation from their Father Confessor along with their application.

Minors applying for admission must send letters of approval from their parents or guardians.

The Brothers beg to inform the Rev. Clergy, that in consequence of the few vocations in this country, they respectfully appeal to them for their co-operation, more especially as they are unable to supply the one-hundreth part of the applications for teachers to conduct schools.

APPROBATIONS.

Cathedral, May 3, 1878.

The Xaverian Brothers devote themselves to the self-sacrificing duty of educating youth. And as they cannot hope to enlarge their sphere of usefulness or to supply their depleted ranks with competent teachers, unless they find young recruits who are willing to attach themselves to the Society, I earnestly commend the object of this circular to the clergy, and trust that the number of vocations to the Xaverian Brotherhood will increase with the growth of the faith of the country.

† JAMES, Archbishop of Baltimore.

We approve of the above circular and earnestly recommend it to the Clergy of the Diocese.

Given at Baltimore, 8th day of April, 1876.

† J. ROOSEVELT BAYLEY, Abp. of Baltimore.

San Francisco, June 8, 1876.

Bro. Alexius, Sup. of St. Mary's Industrial School :

DEAR BRO.—Your circular received. Relying on the sound judgment of the late lamented and venerable Archbishop Spalding, and having an abiding confidence in the great good which can and, I doubt not, will be done by your community in the immense field which you have entered. I cheerfully approve of your circular and hope that great results will crown your efforts. May God fill your Novitiate with holy candidates.

Yours truly, in Christ,

† J. S. ALEMANY, O. P., Abp. of San Francisco.

We cordially approve of the above circular.

† J. B. PURCELL, Abp. of Cincinnati.

Approved, Feb. 3, 1879.

† JOHN J. WILLIAMS, Abp. of Boston.

HONORED BRO. ALEXIUS:

God bless your Congregation of Xaverian Brothers, and give it to increase and multiply in the land, and to be an ark of salvation for our interesting young folks—the boys.

† F. BLANCHET, Archbishop of Oregon.

Portland, Oregon, June 14, 1876.

St. Boniface, Manitoba, July 19, 1876.

MY DEAR BRO. ALEXIUS:

In answer to your letter of June 10th last, I take much pleasure to state that your Congregation deserves encouragement, and I earnestly desire to see it increase, more and more, for the benefit of religious education, arts and sciences, not only in the United States of America but also in other countries.

So I pray almighty God to bless you and your whole religious family, and remain with much esteem, dear Bro. Alexius,

Your most devoted servant,

† ALEX., O. M. I., Abp. of St. Boniface.

We heartily approve of the above circular.

† J. M. HENNI, Abp. of Milwaukee.

St. Michael's Palace, Toronto, Sep. 11, 1876.

DEAR BRO. ALEXIUS:

We heartily approve of and beg of God to bless your excellent work, to multiply your members, and sanctify them more and more for the salvation of souls.

† JOHN JOS. LYNCH, Abp. of Toronto.

Santa Fe, N. M., Sept. 19, 1876.

DEAR BRO. ALEXIUS:

I cordially approve of your circular and wish you every blessing in your good enterprise.

DEAR BROTHER :

I have much pleasure in approving your circular, and I cannot but feel honored if you join my name to the many names of the illustrious Hierarchy of this country, with which your Congregation finds universal favor and approval.

Yours truly in J. C.,

† CHAS. J. SEGHERS, Abp. Oregon City.

We cordially approve of the above circular and recommend it to the Clergy of our Diocese.

† WILLIAM, Bishop of Louisville.

Buffalo, June 5, 1876,

DEAR BROTHER:

I approve of your circular and sincerely hope that you may succeed in increasing your members, extending your sphere of usefulness and firmly establishing your institute in the land. Religious vocations for such communities as yours should not be wanted where there is so much need of them.

Yours &c., very respectfully,

† S. V. RYAN, Bishop of Buffalo.

Covington, Ky., May 10, 1876.

MY DEAR BRO. ALEXIUS:

I received your letter yesterday, and after attentively perusing it, I will say that I cordially approve of the same, and recommend it to the earnest co-operation of the Clergy of my Diocese.

Yours faithfully,

I cordially approve of your circular, and wish all success to your Congregation.

† JOHN, Bishop of St. G of Rimouski.

We cordially approve of the above circular.

† THOMAS, Bishop Adm. of Chicago.

MY DEAR BRO. ALEXIUS:

I very willingly approve of your circular. Your Congregation which has for its object the Christian education of youth, should receive every encouragement in those days, when so much is done to corrupt our youth and to give it an education from which Christianity is entirely excluded. That God, therefore, may bless and increase your pious Congregation, is the sincere prayer of † FRANCIS MORA, Bishop Coadjutor.

The above circular meets with my cordial approval.

J. J. KAIN, Bishop of Wheeling.

Marysville, Washington's Birth-Day, 1878.

VERY REV. BRO. ALEXIUS:

I am at loss to know why you are not content with the approbation of your Novitiate, by so many distinguished dignitaries, both in Canada and the United States, without my humble name being attached to the "proud throng." But as you insist on my sanction of a noble undertaking, I give it freely. The only fault I find with the Novitiate, and yourself in connection with it, is that you have refused to transfer a branch thereof to this diocese. My Vicar General, Very Rev. P. Manogue, Rector Magnificus of "St. Mary's in the Mountains," Virginia City, repeatedly invited you, and you declined his invitation. May God forgive and convert you!

Yours in Christ,

St. John, N. B., Sept. 1876.

DEAR BRO. ALEXIUS:

I have received your letter of the 9th inst. and the circular regarding your Institute. I cordially approve of it, and pray that God may bless your noble work and cause it to increase a hundred-fold.

† J. SWEENEY, Bishop of St. John.

DEAR BRO. PROVINCIAL:

You may add my name to those of other prelates who have given their approbation.

Respectfully yours,

Mon Tres Reverend Frere :

Le grand Mal de Notre epoque est l'education irreligieuse donnee a la jeunesse et a l'enfance meme; et le remede le plus efficace a ce mal est l'enseignement chretien donne par les Congregations religieuses sous l'inspiration et la direction de l'Eglise. C'est donc avec bonheur que j'approuve, apres tant d'autres Prelats votre institut et que je le recommande a tous Ceux qui dependent de ma jurisdiction. Eveche d'Ottawa, February 21, 1881.

DEAR BRO. ALEXIUS:

I have perused with pleasure your circular already approved by so many bishops. I earnestly wish that your Order will have the full co-operation of the Rev. Clergy in finding out young men who will enter your Novitiate and after serious preparation, will devote their entire life to the Catholic education of youth.

Yours in Christ,

† J. THOMAS, Bishop of Ottawa.

St. Paul, Feb. 14, 1881.

BRO. ALEXIUS, PROVINCIAL:

Xaverian Brothers, Carroll, Md.

DEAR BROTHER:

It is hardly necessary to say that I heartily approve of your circular. The greatest difficulty in the way of establishing parochial schools for our boys is to find suitable teachers to take charge of the schools. I hope and pray that the number of young brothers may be multiplied.

Faithfully in Christ,

† THOMAS J. GRACE, Bp. of St. Paul.

We approve of the above circular, and wish the Xaverian Brothers the most abundant success.

† DOMINIC, Vic. Ap. of Brownsville

Tucson, Arizona, June 25, 1876.

DEAR BROTHER:

I am very thankful to you for the communication of the circular relative to the Novitiate commenced by the Xaverian Brothers, at Mt. St. Joseph, Md. I fully approve of this circular. May God bless the Brothers work, and enable them to extend their fields of labor as far as our remote country.

† J. B. SALPOINTE, Vic. Ap. of Arizona.

Yankton, D. Ty., March 22, 1881.

REV. DEAR BROTHER:

Your circular has been greatly delayed by our western snowstorms, but is welcome indeed, and I would be very happy if I could send you at once a few young men to be educated for the great and holy work in which you are engaged. After all the white people were supplied with devoted and pious teachers, I would then dare to apply for the remnant to come out and work among the Indians, who are going to temporal and eternal destruction, because there is nobody to look after them. We can hardly hope to send you young men from these western prairies, but we will pray that about one-third of the Catholic youths in eastern cities who are in vain looking for clerkships and easy genteel jobs may be endowed with the apostolic spirit which will lead them into your Novitiate first and then bring them out West to seek not money but souls.

With best wishes and sincerest regards, dear Rev. Brother.

Your humble servant,

† J. M. MARTY, O. S. A. Vic. Ap. of Dakota.

26 North St., Kingston, Jamaica.

March 14, 1881.

DEAR BRO. IN XT.:

I received your note and the circular you kindly forwarded to me by the last mail.

It is ten years or more since I became acquainted with the Brothers of your Institute. The community I knew was settled in Manchester, England. During the three years I lived there I was delighted with their religious spirit and the devotedness with which they applied themselves to the training and instruction of youth. Confident that the same spirit animates the Xaverian Brothers in the U. S., I cordially approve of your circular and beg God to bless you with an increase of fervent novices.

Nearly all the Catholics in Jamaica are colored. Would there be any hope of such persons gaining admission into your order, if not in America at least in Belgium? I am looking forward to the time when I shall be able to open an Industrial School for boys in Jamaica. It would lighten some of the difficulties if I could see a hope of forming a Creole community. I shall be much obliged to you if you can furnish me with any information on the point.

With kind regards and earnest prayers to God for your success,

I remain, Dear Brother,

Your obedient servant in J. C.,

† THOS. PORTER, Priest S. J., Vic. Ap. of Jamaica.

We approve of the above circular

RUPERT SEIDENBUSH, O. S. L.,

Vic. Ap. of Northern Minnesota.

Bracebridge, Ontario, March 14, 1881.

DEAR BRO. ALEXIUS:

What we want most nowadays are good teachers who will impart a sound Catholic education to youths. Your Order has done already a world of good in this country as well as in Europe. I pray that God may prosper you, bless your efforts and send you a good number of young men to enable you to extend still more the sphere of your usefulness.

† JOHN FRANCIS JAMOT, Bp. of Serepta,
Vic. Ap. of Northern Canada.

St. Albert, Canada, April 26, 1881.

DEAR BRO. ALEXIUS:

Your letter, of the 16th February last, reached St. Albert a few days ago. With the greatest pleasure and most willingly, like so many illustrious Prelates of the United States and Canada, I approve of your circular. I pray God to bless your congregation and to multiply its members.

Unfortunately it does not appear possible that my poor diocese will be able to supply you with any subject for perhaps a long time yet. But were it possible for you, I would entreat you to send me some of your Brothers to work to the education, civilization and christianization of our young Indian boys. This mission I would be so glad to trust to your congregation, is a mission of zeal and entire abnegation and would not fail to draw down on your order the blessings, of heaven. The question is to save from misery, temporal and spiritual death many of our poor Indian boys.

Please, my dear brother Alexius, tell me if I may hope such a blessing for my diocese.

† VITAL J., O. M. I., Bishop of St. Albert.

Catholic Cathedral, Georgetown, Demerara,
May 6, 1881.

DEAR BROTHER ALEXIUS :

I thank you for sending me your circular. I highly approve of the noble object you have in view, and I pray that God's blessing may always be with your work, which will, I am sure, help much to the propagation of the Catholic Faith in the States.

Believe me,

Yours truly in Xt.,

† A. BATTEE, Bishop and V. A.
